Date And Place Of Big Three Meeting Set, Truman Says

The War Today..

Jap Propaganda

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

JAPANESE propagandists have been threatening their people with an imminent American invasion although they know that we are not yet set for climactic action.

They intend to use the next few months to prepare in every way which our bombers will permit. They make much of forming a civilian defense army, like Germany's which only got in the way of regular troops when the showdown came. But they say nothing of the two or three classes of men in reserve and in war plants that now face active duty.

With the end of the Okinawa campaign and the arrival of the Monsoons in Southeast Asia, we probably are entering a period of great preparation rather than great deeds. The possibility (and it is only a possibility) of some action to help the Chinese on the mainland coast was discussed in this column recently. Continued activity in the Indies is likely, but the recapture of Java probably depends largely on the speed of the Borneo campaign and whether or not Java can be invaded before the forces required will be needed for the Tokyo job.

The Japanese have important forces—some say 250,000 men—in Malaya, Indo-China and Thailand. The British can be expected to continue and enlarge their Burma campaign in this direction, with the possibility of some help from the Chinese to the northeast. But any major action there between now and September will be hampered by the rains.

Knowing, then, that the Japanese people will be unable to see the meaning of Allied millions about them, the enemy propagandists are trying to make it appear that General Buckner and his 10th army will stride directly from the smoking battlefields of Okinawa to the main islands. His failure to do so will be portrayed as a great victory for the Japanese navy and air force; the people will be too frightened to grumble over a nation situation which obviously is becoming serious; politicians will rest more securely in their jobs (although after Okinawa's fall it is likely this will apply more to Suzuki's successor); and some progress will be made on a Japanese "Volksstrum" which won't be armed entirely with sharpened bamboo.

And behind the scenes, without benefit of propaganda, real armies and real defenses will be so strengthened that the mere thought of them will cause grim lines along the jaws of our own commanders.

WILL REMAIN SECRET UNTIL HIS ARRIVAL

Representatives To Work Out Polish Solution In Moscow Friday

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 13—President Truman announced today that a Big Three meeting has been set, but he said he could not announce the time or place until his arrival there.

The President also told a news conference that he expected the meeting at Moscow this Friday to work out a unified Polish government on a broad base to produce results.

In obvious good humor following an earlier conference with Harry Hopkins and Joseph E. Davies, his representatives to Moscow and London, the President told the reporters the results they had obtained have been completely satisfactory and gratifying.

He said he would take Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., James F. Byrnes, former war mobilization director, and Davies to the Big Three meeting with him, the latter two if their health permits.

Stettinius said the all important thing was that London, Washington and Moscow continue the unity, confidence and respect which brought results in the military picture to make sure a lasting peace.

He, Marshal Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill, he said, must trust each other.

Discussing last night's announcement regarding the forthcoming meeting of American, Russian and British representatives with three groups of Polish representatives, the President said he thought we are on the way to a complete settlement of that issue.

He said that while no members of the present Polish government in London were invited to the meeting.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY IN $4,000 ROBBERY

Pleas of not guilty to charges of grand larceny and breaking and entering the Recreation Billiard parlor, E. State st., on May 6, were entered today by Joe L. Quinn and Eugene Altomare, both of Salem, when arraigned in Mayor R. R. Johnson's court this morning.

Both are held on bond of $2,500 for action by the grand jury in September.

Quinn and Altomare were arrested yesterday in Alliance after Salem police had tipped off the Alliance police to be on the lookout for them at a girl friend's house on S. Arch ave.

Implication in other recent crimes was foreseen today as deputies from Sheriff Ralph Elser's office in Youngstown were here this morning to question the pair. They questioned the men about the unsolved safe-cracking job at the Damascus postoffice early last month.

Quinn, Altomare and Sherman Ackerman, who was previously arrested, are alleged to have broken into the poolroom where they stole a safe, containing approximately $4,000 and a number of checks and papers.

Ackerman was arrested two weeks ago and entered a plea of guilty. He was released on bond.

Patton Refuses To Smile For News Photographer

WASHINGTON, June 13—An unsmiling Gen. George S. Patton arrived at the national airport today after an overnight flight from Los Angeles.

"Damn it, I'm no politician. I don't smile," the general said when a photographer asked him to smile.

General Patton later was invited to visit President Truman at the White House this afternoon.

Lamb Strays In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, June 13—A stray lamb, found near public square where it caused motorists to stop for fear of running over red points, was in the hands of the Animal Protective league today.

Tickets for the affair are being sold by Polo club members.

BORNEO OIL TANKS FIRED

Japs Ignite Storages As Australians Advance On Brunei

(By Associated Press)

BRUNEI BAY, Borneo, June 13—The Japanese fired west Borneo's rich Seria oil field storage tanks last night—even as Allied forces did before the Nipponese captured this island early in the war.

Hundreds of thousands of gallons must have been destroyed last night alone. I counted 18 tank infernos from a P-T boat within a mile of the shore.

Seria is 60 miles south of where Australian troops landed three days ago on the Borneo mainland. The Aussies, and their southward push in the general direction of Seria by making a small scale amphibious landing on the Brunei river. The landing, 15 miles from the original invasion point, cut behind Japanese opposing the push toward Brunei town.

The main force was nine miles from Brunei when the amphibious operation was made.

On Labuan island in Brunei bay, where the largest Australian force is involved, a drive pushed two miles beyond the captured airstrip.

Japanese in several strong pockets are resisting mostly with rifles and machineguns.

Australian Ninth division infantry pushed ahead steadily against only light to moderate opposition on two main fronts as Lt. Gen. R. L. Morshead predicted at a press conference that "the real fighting is yet to come."

He said the Borneo campaign will be impeded by rivers, swamps, mountains and lack of roads.

Two truck loads of clothing, contributions from Salemites to the United National Clothing committee's drive to aid the people of Europe, left here today for the U. S. Treasury warehouse in Sebring, district collection center.

The two loads equalled 19,700 pounds of clothing. Twelve thousand more pounds are still to be shipped, the committee reports. Salem donated 332 pounds of infants clothing, 1,460 pounds of children's wear, 6,270 pounds of women's and boys', 7,225 pounds of men's and girls', 2,290 pounds of shoes, and 688 pounds of bedding.

National collections, compiled from reports from 6,601 local committees, totaled 136,504,061 pounds. It is reported. Five hundred tons of clothing were shipped two weeks ago on the liner Gripsholm for distribution in Greece, Yugoslavia and Italy. More will be sent as soon as space can be reserved.

20 Hotels In Cleveland Checked As Vice Spots

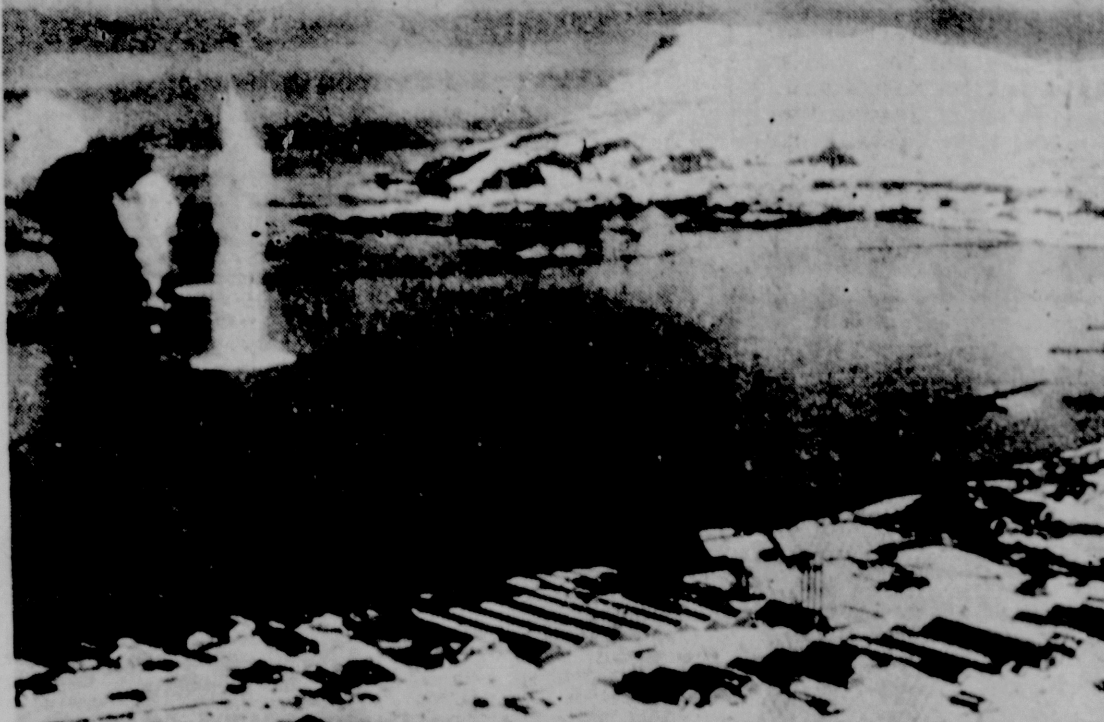

CLEVELAND, June 13—Safety Director Frank D. Celebrezze said today he had summoned owners and operators of 20 small hotels in the downtown area to appear before him tomorrow to answer reports the hostilities are being used as vice spots.

The director's order followed an announcement by the city health department that venereal disease has increased 30 per cent with the last year.

Celebrezze said two hotels which failed to cooperate with a previous order from his office had been deprived of their licenses.

Legislature Set To Override Lausche's Veto Of School Bill

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, June 13—Gov. Frank J. Lausche sent his veto of the much-discussed Daniels-Cramer school bill to the Ohio senate today in the face of strong prospects that it might be overridden immediately.

Sen. Virgil E. Cramer (R., Lucas), co-sponsor of the measure with Sen. Albert L. Daniels (R., Highland), said: "We've decided what we are going to do about the veto. The action might come today. I don't think there's any doubt about the outcome."

House of representatives leaders have predicted the veto would be snowed under in that chamber.

TEN PLANTS TOP 'E' BOND QUOTAS

ROGERS BOY HURT IN RAID ON TOKYO

ROGERS, June 13—Marion Kiehl, 22, received flak wounds in both legs while on a bombing mission May 24 over Tokyo, according to a letter he wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kiehl.

An aerial gunner and radarman, he said he has been hospitalized in the Marianas and expects to return to his outfit soon as he is able to walk a little with crutches.

A member of the 1941 class of New Waterford high school, he entered the army air forces May 18, 1943. He is attached to a B-29 Super-Fortress group of the 20th air force. His brother, Marine Pfc. Wayne A. Kiehl, who is serving on Okinawa, was wounded in action Sept. 15 in the Palau islands.

Compared with requests of 39 plants for 2157 new workers at the May 8 meeting, Reinhardt said WMC officials hope to ease some controls by July 1.

Scale Cliffs Before Dawn, Fool Enemy

(By The Associated Press)

GUAM, June 13—Simultaneously American pre-dawn attacks on both flanks of Yaeju plateau caught the Japanese napping and apparently cracked the enemy's last ditch defense line on Okinawa, front dispatches reported today.

The Japanese came to life at daybreak and attacked with machineguns and knee mortars. But it was too late.

Cliff-scaling Seventh division infantrymen held the eastern anchor of the Nipponese suicide line. First division Marines were astride a ridge at the western anchor, three miles away. And from the north, American field artillery unleashed one of the heaviest barrages of the campaign against two concentrations of the 10,000 to 15,000 enemy troops dug into caves atop the plateau.

In 36 hours battling for the slope of one hill, 137 men in a single Marine company, including all of its officers, were killed or wounded. That is more than half the company's strength.

Japanese, including at least one woman in soldier's uniform, charged Marine lines during the night with satchel charges. They blew up like firecrackers when hit.

Machineguns were packed to the top of the escarpment on the backs of Yanks scaling ropes, hand over hand. Tankmen brought flame-throwing 500-foot hose extensions connected to their tanks at the base of the cliff.

Tokyo Stresses Home Defense

The Okinawa battle was so nearly ended that Tokyo turned its back on the Mikados, dying garrison, 3 1/2 miles south of Japan.

The enemy radio switched its theme to the menace of a home-land invasion. It quoted the Nippon times as saying "Japan will defend herself unflinchingly and unshakably... as long as her very existence and her sacred ideals are threatened."

The brilliant maneuver of the U. S. 10th Army marines and soldiers on Okinawa, entailing a night ascent up the sheer face of cliffs by ropes, posed a threat which the Nipponese acknowledged by heavy counterattacks and intense fire from caves.

In Honolulu, Col. George P. Ummacht, chemical officer who designed the flame-throwing extensions, said:

"We are not through yet. More surprises are coming up but let the Japs hear about them first."

Associated Press Correspondent Al Dopping told in a front dispatch how elements of the Seventh Infantry division on the east flank of the escarpment Monday scaled ropes and won a strategic height southwest of Hanagasaki. Since then, these 32nd regiment infantrymen have pushed down the south slope, despite heavy enemy fire.

Yesterday, to the northwest of Hanagasaki, the 17th regiment of the seventh used the same tactics at night to ascend a cliff at the front of the plateau.

On the western end of the escarpment line below Itoyan town, First division marines started at night up Kunishi ridge, reached the top before daylight and were reinforced as the Japanese sought vainly to dislodge them.

Ohio Apple Crop Will Be Small

COLUMBUS, June 13.—One of the poorest apple crops on record for Ohio is indicated for this year, the Ohio Cooperative Crop Reporting Service said today. Wheat production, on the other hand, is expected to approach the record.

The prospect for apples on June 1 was 25 per cent of a full crop. The service will make no estimate of the 1945 yield in bushels until July 1, but it pointed out that last year's yield of 5,395,000 was 73 per cent of a full crop.

The anticipated drop in yield was attributed to poor pollination, extremely severe frost damage and an "off year" for some varieties.

Peaches suffered less frost damage, but the indicated crop of 450,000 bushels is less than half that of 1944.

Sweet cherry production is expected to be 270 tons and that of sour cherries, 1,500 tons.

The service predicted a wheat crop of 54,552,000 bushels, which has been exceeded only in 1940 and 1919.

The outlook for other crops on June 1: Rye, 496,000 bushels, smallest since 1938; oats, 48,285,000 bushels, well above the average; barley, 569,000 bushels, a reduction due to less acreage.

LISBON SAILOR IN ACCIDENT SERIOUS

Car Overtakes On Millville Hill; Two Women Are Injured

A Lisbon sailor, home on leave, is in critical condition in Salem City hospital today after a car he was driving overturned on the Millville hill at 1 a. m. today, injuring two others who were passengers in the car.

Dale Cooper, 25, of R. D. 1, Lisbon, on leave after several years of service overseas, suffered a serious internal injury, while Helen Williams, 23, 449 W. Sixth st., received a possible fracture of the left ankle and Mrs. Juanita Devan, 20, of 492 Jennings ave. suffered bruise burns and abrasions. All were taken to Salem City hospital.

A fourth rider, Robert L. Myers of 523 Artna st., was uninjured. He told state patrolmen that Cooper lost control of the vehicle and it overturned as it rounded the second curve on the Route 14 Millville hill.

It was the second serious traffic accident on Route 14, east of Salem, in two days.

$200,000 Loan To Elliott Roosevelt Settled For $4,000

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 13—Carruthers Ewing, general counsel for the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., says a $200,000 loan to Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt from John Hartford, president of the A. & P., was settled for $4,000.

Hartford yesterday termed "substantially correct" a story in West-branch Pegasus column syndicated by King Features, that the son of the late President borrowed the $200,000 in 1939. Roosevelt could not be reached for comment.

Pegasus' account "is not the whole story but it is substantially correct," Hartford said, adding, "I regret very much that it has been published."

Ewing said in Danville, Ill., that the debt was settled three years later "at the request of the Roosevelt family" through the then secretary of commerce, Jesse Jones.

Ewing said Roosevelt, then 29, secured the loan to finance his Texas radio interests. "They were losing money hand over fist," Ewing added.

He said that in 1942 Jones told him the Roosevelt family wanted to compromise the debt and he took young Roosevelt's note and stock collateral to Jones who "gave me a check payable to John Hartford for $4,000 which was all Hartford ever received on the loan."

"The loan," Ewing said, "was written off by Mr. Hartford in his 1942 income tax report as a bad debt."

The Crime Proves Itself

The legal minds working on the problem of punishing war criminals seem to be hobbled in one respect by their own confusion. They cannot understand that war crime already is so well established that it proves itself. All that remains to be done in the case of the Germans is to designate which of the criminals shall be punished and in what manner. In the eyes of the people, whose judgment in the mass is the only permanent basis for international law, all Germans who did not openly resist their government's plan to begin and carry on a war of aggression are guilty. The only question concerns the degree of their guilt.

Yet, only a quarter of a century ago the end of Germany's previous military adventure was the signal to start a debate on the propriety of pinning war guilt on Germany at all. There has been that much progress in the intervening years; this time there is no question of war guilt. Not even the Germans themselves seem disposed to raise any question of their collective guilt for the war. They and their allies joined in a conspiracy, contrary to the ethics of civilization. They failed, and now they are facing punishment. Their plea is for mercy, not pardon. The legalists who have dreamed of outlawing war have made more progress than they seem to be able to understand.

They Were Pikers

The Department of Justice report on administration of the law to control foreign agents in the United States lends itself to isolationist prejudice. To be sure, other governments are anxious to win good will in the United States and carry on extensive—and expensive—propaganda to that end. That is no crime. To whatever extent the result is an increase in information, it is education, not propaganda. Anyone who has had access to the kind of material made available by British Information Service, for instance, has reason to be grateful. As for Russia, which maintains no official bureau in the United States, it could well afford to exploit American interest in Russian affairs. There clearly is nothing wrong with any activity that increases international understanding. It is merely good public relations.

The truth is, as every other government in the world knows, all other nations are pikers compared to the United States in the public relations field. Virtually every American soldier sent abroad has been an unofficial ambassador of good will. American manpower, money, skill and the worldwide impression of American generosity have done a public relations job of such magnitude in the last five years that no one else could afford to pay for even the outline of a comparable project. If what Americans do is good will and cooperation, then perhaps what other countries try to do is at least enlightened propaganda.

And How They Dread It!

It would be easy to get the impression from congressional slights and slurs that the legislative branch is ready to scuttle price controls and put its heart into an inflationary spree. But legislative appearances are deceiving. Congressmen talk a bigger inflationary spree than they are willing to risk.

For almost four years, ever since the late Mr. Roosevelt first asked for legislation in July, 1941, to hold down price increases, Congress reluctantly has done one thing while eagerly longing to do the opposite. It has gone through the motions of discouraging an excessive war-boom price inflation, but it has let its imagination wander.

In the present instance, while the wise money would have to be laid on Congress to renew OPA and price stabilization in general, individual legislators are talking as if they stood 100 per cent for inflation. In the words of advice given by John N. Garner to Mr. Roosevelt during the crack-down days of the New Deal, they'd like "to let the cattle run a little". They'd like to have a little inflation. Inflation makes everybody happy . . . but alas there is the hangover. That is the danger.

The danger is not an illusion, either. It exists. It exists in the possibility legislators who would like to let things ease up a little, but dread the thought of blowing off the lid, may doctor up the law with amendments and needle public opinion with criticism until the stabilization lid can't be held on any longer.

The United States has won its war with Germany. It is winning its war with Japan. It still hasn't won the war with itself—the war that could do more damage than the shooting wars if all the potentialities of runaway inflation ever were loosed at the same time.

An Issue Still Open

Much of the evidence now available about the effect of Allied power on Germany suggests the Allies did not know their own strength.

They surpassed their own high requirements for maximum results against German targets. Once they had gained mastery of the air over Germany, the damage done with British and United States bombers and, later, by strafing planes was beyond the expectations of Allied strategists.

Without being stated in so many words, there has come into existence since Germany's final collapse a general acceptance of the possibility of winning a war with air power. It does not mean there would be no place for land power and sea power. It does mean that the decision might turn on air power and thereafter be shaped into final form by the supplementary effect of navies and land armies.

This emerging fact is of prime importance in the growing aerial attack on Japan. Air power in this attack is being applied to a fresh problem. The Japanese, unlike the Germans, are vulnerable to blockade.

Also unlike the Germans, they are not possessors themselves of an air arm comparable in skill and strength to the force they must resist.

It is plain that the prophets of air power, far from being discouraged by their experience in the war to date, are more certain of themselves than ever. They are gaining converts. And in the Pacific, they have gained one of history's rarest opportunities—a chance to put into effect in one war all the lessons lately learned from another war. If the issue over air power's ability to bring war to a decision ever can be settled conclusively, Japan is destined to be the victim of some of the grimmest determination and highest skill ever applied to a military problem.

The Stars Say

For Thursday, June 14

AN EVENTFUL day in which affairs should move swiftly toward surprising culminations, with a chain of happy and progressive occurrences, is presaged by interesting planetary aspects. These favor unique, unusual, unorthodox and irregular matters, although such should be developed and rationalized on accepted techniques and rules. Public, community and fraternal welfare seem involved, with promise of conspicuous recognition for clever or original plans or ideas, which must be soundly stabilized and constructive.

Those whose birthday it is may look for an exciting and rapidly moving year, in which original, irregular, even audacious and ingenious ideas or propositions are likely to attract public or community approbation and substantial support. Quick grasp of such opportunities for putting over unusual plans, with initiative and decisive moves, should be practically demonstrated to prove their workability, genuine worth and utility, for enduring profit and long range rewards. Bright ideas should have sure bases.

A child born on this day may have brilliant ideas, inventive genius, originality and skill, challenging public support and pleasant recognition in professional and personal life.

Policing Lend-Lease

On the day that the Foreign Economics Administration announced a sharp curtailment in the lend-lease program to France, the Army newspaper Stars and Stripes reported that French flyers in American lend-leased bombers had carried out obliterating raids on Arab villages in Algeria.

Apparently there was no connection between the two announcements. Nevertheless, it is good to know that usage of lend-lease material is now being scrutinized closely. With Germany beaten, lend-lease comes under the heading of expedient altruism. It is right that this country should know its ultimate use.

France's disheartening use of arms contributed to the common defense should serve to sharpen the vigilance of lend-lease authorities.

Due to military requirements, wool blankets for civilians are "frozen". And, if it keeps up, even as you and I.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Treatment of Diabetes

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

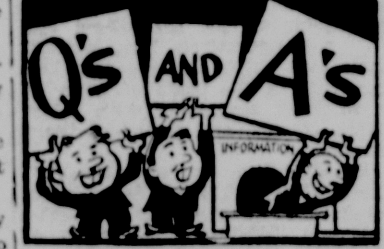

THE increasing life span of the average person has brought into prominence the treatment of older persons for diseases that are peculiar to advanced years.

One of these disorders, in men, is enlargement of the prostate gland, which leads to a blocking of the flow of the urine. It would appear that some form of operative treatment is required to relieve this disorder in practically all cases. In many cases the operation is a simple one.

According to Doctors Clarence G. Bandler and Philip R. Roen of New York, the medical preparation of all patients for operation is important. The patients must be carefully examined, and if any disorders are present which can be corrected, they should be relieved. The patient may have other conditions, such as diabetes or anemia.

If the patient is found to be suffering from diabetes, this disorder must, of course, be treated by the use of insulin and diet. If there is anemia or a lessening of the coloring in the blood, blood transfusions may be necessary.

Plane Crashes In Street.

Four Occupants Bruised

CINCINNATI, June 13.—A pilot and his three passengers were alive today to tell how their Stinson plane crashed and burned yesterday in a thickly-populated section of nearby Fort Thomas, Ky.

The plane, which had just left Lunken airport, came down directly over a street lined with homes. The craft skidded along the thoroughfare throwing the occupants clear as it turned over twice. It came to rest in a vacant lot, exploded and burned.

Being treated at a Dayton, Ky., hospital for cuts and bruises were: Charles H. Vestal, 34, pilot, Yard-kinville, N. C.; Louis Rudolph, 25, his wife, Jane Marie, 23, and Mrs. Sarah Kellebrew, 24, all of Hopkinsville, Ky.

The speed of the hummingbird is extremely difficult to determine, since its flights are short and spasmodic, but tests have shown that no bird can make a short dash with the speed of the tiny hummer.

LADY'S STOMACH WAS LIKE A GAS FACTORY:

One lady said recently that her stomach used to be like a "gas factory." When she ate a meal it seemed to turn right into gas. She was always bloated, had daily headaches and badly constipated. Now, however, this lady is FREE of STOMACH GAS and says the change is due to taking ERB-HELP. Her meals agree with her. No gas or bloating. Headaches and constipation are gone.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; so don't go on suffering! Get this new medicine. — Lease Drug Store.

A SONG TO REMEMBER

by Willard Wiener

JOSEF ELISNER'S new quarters are not as desirable as No. 27 Boulevard Poissoniere. In fact they are not desirable in any way. Still, it is not a question of desirability. It is a question merely of some place where Josef Elmsner might put his head at night and keep warm in the day, and his new room was furnished with a cot and also with a stove which, if he used it properly, he could afford to burn the coldest days to take the chill away. The room was also equipped with a piano, an absolute necessity for a teacher of music. It was not exactly a new instrument. The tuner had put it into such shape that you could stand the sounds without your nerves becoming too jangled.

Josef Elmsner let it be known that he was the teacher of Frederic Chopin, a man of no little reputation. People listened to him there, if they believed him. But he was a teacher of music, and a few neighborhood families—"We cannot afford very much, Monsieur"—sent their children to him for their musical education.

The old master wobbled his head and worked his jaw as one of his young students labored over the scales. "One and two, three and four. Every note must dance and sing—"

"Tch, tch," he said. "No, no; very uneven, my dear. Let's try again. Maybe you sit too low."

"I can't reach so high," Albert said.

"We'll fix that," Josef Elmsner asked about for something for little Albert to sit on. He found some boxes. "There. How's that?"

"Now I can reach—"

"Certainly. No trouble at all. I could have thought of that before. Well, now, let's try it again. One and two, yes—"

There was a rap at the door. "Come, Albert! Play."

There's somebody at the door, professor."

He looked toward the door. "Well, come in!"

The door opened. Louis Pleyel stood on the threshold.

"Come in—come in, please! I do not mean great honor," Josef Elmsner grabbed the hand of Monsieur Pleyel. He pulled him into the room.

Louis Pleyel saw at a glance, as he could not help but see, the change in Josef Elmsner's condition. He had difficulty in finding you, Elmsner."

"—Eh?" Josef Elmsner removed his spectacles. He held them in his right hand, then put them back on his nose.

"I don't want to interrupt you," Louis Pleyel said, conscious of the way at the piano. "I didn't mean to interrupt—"

"—Humph, Albert is very glad you did. Aren't you, Albert?"

"Yes, Professor."

"—Exactly. Do you think Elmsner doesn't know? Well, that will be all my boy, Friday. Same hour."

"Yes, Professor."

"—Umm, Practice! You hear?"

"Yes, Professor."

Albert had his music under his arm. Josef Elmsner saw him to the door. He closed the door. "A nice silent, Louis. Maybe some day for you. Who knows, Sit down."

"Only for a minute," Louis Pleyel sat down. "You might have said you had moved."

"As a matter of fact, Louis—in another day or two. It's exactly what I was going to do. But there are so many details when you are getting yourself established. Now, Louis, you will have a glass of wine?"

"No, thank you," Louis Pleyel said the cot, the bare floor, the cold stove. "Establish yourself—in a neighborhood like this?"

Congress To Hear Elks Lodge Report Tomorrow

Find Evidence That Nazis Left Young Babies to Die

IN GERMANY, June 13. — Evidence was found today that the Nazis starved to death the newborn babies of Russian and Polish slave laborers in the Reich.

In the factory town of Fallersleben, German army medical men found German records and got testimony from local residents showing that in that area alone 350 infants died in a nursery that was operated as a house of death.

The children, taken from their mothers a few days after birth, were left unattended until they died the evidence showed. A German farmer got 25 cents apiece for burying them in mass graves.

The babies' mothers, who had been forced to return to work, were charged the burial fee plus $4 for care in the nursery.

SOMEWHERE ON OKINAWA—

It is a peaceful interlude—and there are surprisingly many behind the lines—when Okinawa seems somehow beautiful again. It is sunset, and the western sky is washed over with pastel orange tints and cloud ribbons.

On the sharp pinnacles of the hills, strange pines stretch supplicant arms, like priests of some dark Oriental cult.

The soft light envelopes the little camp, where here and there smoke rises in tiny spirals—small fumes where G. I.'s are laughing, talking, cleaning guns, heating water for helmet baths. The light gives color to the grey stone of the hillside tombs, bathes the hills and valleys. There is laughter, a snatch of song, and darkness falls gently over our countryside.

The sirens wail, mournful in the night, and war is close again, heavy, oppressive, unseen in the sky. We gather near foxholes, in readiness. There is strained banter, a little laughter, and much staring into the star-filled sky. Voices are subdued, conversation studiously irrelevant.

"Looka those stars!" says my fox-hole neighbor. "Is that the southern cross? Funny to see it so far north, eh?" He is a veteran of many invasions—too many. His nerves are on edge.

We do find Orion, and the Big Dipper, and the North star and . . .

"Air raid! Air raid!" men yell as the darkness is shredded with flaming red serpents of tracers, the quiet murdered with explosives' chatter. We have all dived by now—burrowing close into the damp, smelly red clay, hearts pounding, throats suddenly parched. From our foxhole we can steal glimpses of the hellish probing searchlights. Then suddenly all is quiet—a tense, oppressive silence.

Slowly through the stillness creep the sounds again—the thunderous whistles riding earth and sky—the distant prof of a star-shell over the front lines, its white light shed over miles like a star of Bethlehem; the faraway crackle of machinegun fire; the strange humming sound so close at hand which is only a persistent mosquito; and then—listen, listen . . . another humming sound, closer, closer, closer . . .

"It's overhead," whispers by fellowfox.

Then waiting, waiting, while the sound recedes—but not for long. An explosion is heard, far away, but close enough to send us hugging earth again. The ack-ack breaks again, and we burrow deeper from the falling shrapnel. A small fragment, still hot, lands beside our hole. There is another explosion, and jubilant cries: "They got 'em, they got 'em."

The Japanese pilot's funeral pyre is on a far hillside, its flame leaping in the darkness.

At last, comes the all-clear. We crawl out, joints creaking and muscles cramped, strange drowsiness sweeping over us despite the chill bite of the night air.

"Well, that's over—for a while," yawns my friend.

Star shells linger white over the frontline sky, and now there is the distant thunder of artillery. "Ours," an old timer says.

We crawl into cots again, stretching in the darkness, and sleep comes—until the early morning siren when

● It has been said that lines of communication are a prime factor in the Pacific war. With us, this is literally true. Tons of especially designed communications equipment are being produced by Western Electric, manufacturing unit of the Bell Telephone System, to link our far-flung forces stretching across the Pacific.

Life of this equipment is short. It must be built to withstand the rigors of attack on land and sea and treated against damage from tropical fungus growth. For this reason all of our resources cannot be thrown immediately into the huge task of manufacturing and installing all the telephones, cables, dial equipment and switchboards to provide telephone service for every civilian who wants it.

Our first job is supplying the hungry communication lines of the Pacific. When final victory releases us from this first duty, we will go ahead at full speed with our program to make service available to everyone as soon as possible. It will be a big job, requiring a large part of the $60,000,000 that we have allocated for improvements and extensions during the first two years following victory.

Tired-Listless? YES NO

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 25c.

FOREIGN NATIONS PROPAGANDA IN U. S. IS POLISHED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—Attorney General Biddle told Congress yesterday foreign government propaganda activities in this country have become costlier and of a more polished type.
In a report on administration of the Foreign Agents Registration act from June 28, 1942, through last Dec. 31, Biddle estimated more than 12,000 different items of propaganda in 26 languages have been filed annually with the Justice department.
He added that organizations and individuals associated with 34 foreign governments are participating in propaganda or publicity activities in this country.
The most important propaganda organizations, Biddle said, are official information centers maintained in the United States by 18 foreign governments. He said the 15 principal ones increased their annual expenditures in this country from $2,873,000 in 1942 to $5,368,000 in 1944.

Parallel Activities
The Soviet union, the report said, does not maintain an official information agency "but conducts parallel activities by other means in large part not subject to the (Foreign Agents Registration) act."
A condensation of the report said, "The Soviet embassy in Washington prints and widely distributes a monthly bulletin; the Soviet information bureau in Moscow transmits articles and news releases by cable and radio to the American press, and the All-Union Society for Cultural Relations With Foreign Countries (Voksa) sends publications and exhibit materials directly to individuals and organizations in the United States."
Propaganda now is far different from the often anti-democratic type handed out by the Axis nations before the war, said Biddle. He added:
"The great bulk of propaganda distributed since 1942 has been designed to create good will for foreign governments and deals mainly with their contributions to the common war effort and to aspects of their history, culture and present-day problems."
Prosecutions under the registration act and under a somewhat similar provision of espionage statutes have resulted in 41 criminal proceedings involving 125 defendants since 1938, the report said.

French Prosecutor To Demand Death--And Mercy--For Petain

PARIS, June 13.—(AP)—A haired Marshal Petain has completed the preliminary outline of his defense against treason charges. He will contend to trial that, far from having betrayed his country, he saved what remained of it for the liberation.
State Prosecutor Andre Mornet, who sent the renowned spy Mata Hari before the firing squad after the first World war, will urge that 89-year-old former Vichy chief of state be sentenced to death—and then spared.
The trial is expected to begin June 28.
Petain will conduct his own defense.
The state holds that conviction of Petain is necessary in order that France herself be exonerated from the deeds of the four dark years when the man once revered as the World War I defender of Verdun headed the armistice government of World War II.
Mornet declared: "Petain deserves the supreme penalty, but I think he has reached the age where considerations of humanity should prevail."
Hanged In Effigy
Public opinion is divided. Petain was hanged in effigy in shop windows. The Communist party which swept the recent countryside municipal elections campaigned for his death, also urged by the bulk of the Paris press.
However, outside the urban centers many still regard him as having been at least a well-meaning leader.
Out of the interrogation of the marshal under France's pre-trial examining system, the state's case and Petain's have shaped up this way:
1.—The prosecution will attempt to prove Petain had been at least favorable to some form of authoritarian control in France since World War I; that he seized upon the military setback in the spring of 1940 to surrender prematurely in the hope that a totalitarian or perhaps a Royalist France would take the out of the defeat.
Petain's specific defense on these points has not been disclosed.
2.—The prosecution will seek to show by vast powers he placed in the hands of Chief of Government Pierre Laval he delivered France to the will of the Nazis.
Petain said he "tolerated Laval as a necessary concession to the politics forced upon me by the occupation."
3.—The state probably will accuse Petain of failing to order the French fleet out of Toulon in time to join the Allies in North Africa. Instead it was scuttled.
Petain has said such an order would have been impossible to execute and might have resulted in the imprisonment of 700,000 released French prisoners of war and in the establishment of a German gauliteer over France.

Marshal Petain

BY CHARLES FOLTZ
(Substituting For Hal Boyle)
MADRID — Some 20,000 to 50,000 Germans—most of whom have arrived in Spain since the war began—could if the mails permitted write to their friends "having a wonderful time, wish you were here."
Neutral Spain today has plenty of Germans. For perhaps a fortnight after V-E day the German colony in Spain obeyed the orders of the German charge d'affaires, Sigismund Von Bibras—to keep out of the public eye. Then came the warm weather.
The Germans are now gallivanting all over. Their legal position is simple—they are wealthy refugees.
Only the diplomats and officials among them were expected to remain in their homes as a result of Spain's decision to "break relations" with the German government just the day before it was announced

The German government had ceased to exist.
20,000 to 50,000
The others, including hundreds of technicians, like weathermen and of commercial experts, reached Spain under no legal orders.
The official figures supplied by the Spanish police only list 8,000 Germans as officially residing in Spain when the liberation of France severed the last land connection with the Reich. Now the minimum figure generally accepted by the Allied chancelleries ranges between 20,000 and 50,000.
The German embassy had obligingly extended passports.
Months earlier the German financial and economic attaches gave free advice to all German businessmen eager to place their properties in the hands of trustworthy persons likely to escape search. They were presumably experts on such matters since they handled similar ones for the Nazi consortium in Spain "sofindus," whose name divided into three English words is an accurate description of the difficulties the Allied experts are encountering in trying to find hidden assets.
Many Have Own Homes
Many of the Germans are enjoying the summer chalets and villas they had built in the mountains and on the beaches of Spain during the boom years. Their private commercial accounts were blocked by order of the Spanish government on the day the German surrender was announced, but only a very few Germans were unprepared for such an action and most of them had plenty of cash on hand.
Officials of the Spanish foreign ministry view the Germans in Spain just as they do Pierre Laval.

News Downs Leetonia 4-2, Recreation Trims Eagles 9-1

Two Winners Now Holding First As Mullins Moves Automatically To Third

Leetonia was dropped from the first place race in Class A softball last night as the Salem News, clubbing but four hits, collected four runs to the Boosters' two to move into a temporary tie for first place with the Recreation, which had an easy time yesterday, winning 9-1 from the last place Eagles outfit.

The hurling of "Chet" Brautigam, Don "Lefty" Herrold and Ralph "Sarge" Gregg marked the play at the park as The News and the Old Timers took over the top position and Mullins moved automatically to a temporary third.

Brautigam, though working without a roving shortstop, pulled himself out of several tight spots to keep the News in front. Gregg limited the Eagles to a scattered four hits and walked but two in one of his best nights so far.

Herrold, though beaten, allowed the News only four bingles but gave up seven walks, which spelled the losing margin.

Gregg had the Eagles stymied all the way and his teammates bashed out seven hits, which coupled with eight walks by Eagle Pitchers Tom Minor and Walt Ehrhart, gave the Old Timers runs to spare.

The Recreation scored in the first frame three times. After Shorty Borton walked with one away Wink Miller singled and Jim Jackson and Cornelius Sobotka, the league's leading hitter, followed with doubles. Jackson's hit scored Borton and Miller and Sobotka's double pushed Jackson over with the third tally.

The Eagles countered with a single run in the first and went scoreless the rest of the way. Seven walks and a single by Pete Sanders scored six in the sixth for the Rees.

The News opened with power for two innings and then fell to the mercy of Herrold's offerings. Bob Miller got a single to lead off in the last of the first and Glenn Couche equalled it to put men on first and third with one out.

Frank Tarr, back in the lineup after a game's absence, continued his 333 average by clubbing a double over second to score the first two runs.

The News got two more in the second when Fred Cope, playing for the first time this season, and Don Beattie walked. With two out and runners on second and third, First Sacker Orie "Hoss" Wright lined out a scorching double to make the News' total.

Leetonia's lone pair came in the second when an error by Shortstop Couche set the stage after one was away. On the next pitch Guy Belmont lined a single to left center and both runs crossed the plate. Clunen, who got two for two, for three from Brautigam, and Frederick scored.

The News had another recruit besides Cope. Bill Fisher, a hard hitter and reliable catcher, took over the duties behind the plate. Brautigam issued one walk, his first of the year, and fanned one. Herrold struck two out and issued seven walks.

PREAKNESS LOOMS AS HOOP, JR. AND PAVOT MATCHING

Two Favorites Figure To Romp Away with Field; Hoop Is Top Pony

By JOHN F. CHANDLER

Baltimore, June 13 — There might be as many as a dozen thoroughbreds going to the post in the richest of all Preaknesses Saturday, but to the betting gentry it's strictly a two-horse affair between Pavot and Hoop, Jr.

Heavy horse to horse betting—that is, which of the two will lead the other home, and wagering on which one will be the favorite with the crowd as shown on the odds board at race time, is reported to have absorbed the wise guys to an unusual degree.

Hoop, Jr., rates, of course, through his Kentucky Derby victory, while Pavot, the 1944 juvenile champion, picked up backing with a sparkling 1:59 1-5 workout at Pimlico yesterday over the full Preakness distance of a mile and three-sixteenths.

Another factor in betters' minds was the disclosure that Eddie Arcaro would not ride Hoop, Jr., as he did in the Derby. Arcaro has a chore on Devil Diver at Belmont Saturday.

Harry Isaac announced today that his Brookfield would not go, while it was questionable whether Col. C. V. Whitney's Jeep would come down from New York. There also was a question about Bobant, from Bobant stable.

Mrs. W. G. Lewis' Darby Dieppe, third in the Derby, is expected to work out tomorrow, along with Christiana Stable's Alexis, another contestant at Louisville.

Others on hand are Col. E. R. Bradley's Burning Dream, a Derby runner, and Ball Bond; Charles S. Howard's Sea Swallow; and Mrs. A. B. Widener's Polynesian.

Men About Town Top Nazarene's 13-10

With a five-run bevy in the first inning and four more in the fifth and sixth, the Men About Town cleaned up on the Nazarenes 13-10, in the Class B loop last night. The other contest, between the Zions and Youth Center went to the Youth Center on a forfeit when Captain Ted Boone refused to field his team in the third frame.

Harvey Walken led the MAT's with four singles in four times at the plate. Parks of the losing outfit completed a like number of safeties in four times up.

Yankee Man-Hunter

PAUL KRICHELL... (The man who found Gehrig) HAS SPENT 25 YEARS ON THE IVORY TRAIL FOR THE YANKEES...

YOU CAN ALWAYS COME BACK LATER

Scout's Biggest Troubles Come From Bum Steers On Big Time Talent Prospects

BY AL VERMEER

NEW YORK — Now in his 25th year as a Yankee scout, Paul Krichell concedes it would be a pretty comfortable life if only so many people wouldn't send in phony tips. There must be 200,000 self-appointed scouts in New York City alone, says Krichell, and they are forever "discovering" new DMaggios, Gehrigs and Fellers. He calls these people "bird dogs" because they are always pointing.

"Yet I have to follow every lead they give me," explains Paul, "because one out of 100 is apt to be something good." A middle-aged man with horn-rimmed glasses and a cigar protruding from his face, Krichell follows no set pattern in hunting ball players. Hitting, running and throwing are the prime requisites but you can overlook one defect in favor of a couple of virtues. Especially in these days.

But one thing you cannot overlook is another scout. You've got to keep glancing over your shoulder, says Krichell, or a rival talent hunter will trail you down to see what you're after.

Learned His Lesson

He remembers the lesson he received from Mike Drennan who uncovered Jimmy Foss and Pinky Higgins for the Athletics. Krichell and Drennan were in Raleigh, N. C., putting the eye on a young catcher.

"We were great friends. We roomed together and I trusted Mike faithfully. Finally he said the catcher didn't impress him and he was going back to Philly. So I walked to the station to see him off. Mike waved goodbye, climbed into the train and hopped right out the other side. He scurried back to the ball park, signed the catcher, and from that day on I never trusted another scout."

Krichell has picked up a few tricks himself, including walking out of a minor league park in the fifth inning. Other scouts, fearful he has seen the marks of a lemon in the player being scouted, also withdraw from the scene. And then is when Krichell back-tracks and goes to work.

"Make you don't believe it, but a lot of men in this business lose their nerve," reveals Krichell.

INDIANS HAVING TIME WITH SOX

Windy City Club Has Won Five Out of Six From Tribe This Year

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 13.—The Cleveland Indians, hoping the Chicago White Sox haven't a second Thornton Lee on their roster, again today will attempt that apparently difficult feat—defeating the Windy City boys.

The Tribe's star righthander, Steve Gronck, will be on the mound. Opposing him probably will be Joe Haynes.

Lee treated the Cuyahoga river gang to a special three-hit brand of firewater last night, romping off with a 1 to 0 victory over Southpaw Al Smith. The big Chicagoan whiffed 16 two under Bob Feller's record of 18.

Smith allowed only five hits but gave five bases on balls, which contributed to his downfall. Chicago scored the only run with one out in the ninth when, after a single and two walks, Bill Nagel slashed a hit into center to bring Leroy Schalk home.

Manager Lou Boudreau, held up in Cleveland to take a pre-induction physical examination (he flunked because of arthritic ankles) arrived in time to play but he was helpless in the face of Lee's explosive curves.

The victory was the White Sox' fifth in six games with the Indians this season. Red Embree, who was inducted into the armed forces Monday, pitched the Indians to their only win over Chicago on May 4.

Lange at Mt. Vernon High

MOUNT VERNON, June 13.—Bill Lange, whose coaching experience includes service at Muskingum college, Kenyon college and the University of North Carolina, is the new athletic director and head coach of Mount Vernon High school.

The appointment of George Bradshaw, former Otterbein athlete who has a medical discharge from the Navy, as track coach also was announced yesterday.

Plan Ohio Golf Tourney

DAYTON, June 13.—The Ohio Professional Golfers association announced that the Ohio Open tournament would be played in Findlay sometime in August.

Gehrig Biggest Catch

His biggest catch was the late Lou Gehrig, whom he trailed at Columbia University. Krichell blushes to think of it, but Gehrig signed for a mere $1500. "I used to feel bad about that," says Paul, "but Lou made a lot of money with the Yankees, so I figured it worked out good for both sides."

Other scouts used Gehrig to steer promising first basemen out of Krichell's hands. Hank Greenberg, a New York boy, was signed by Detroit because "how do you expect to play with the Yankees when they've got Gehrig?" The same happened to Frank McCormick, who went to Cincinnati.

"Funny thing about it," says Krichell, "is Gehrig always told us he would be willing to move to right field if we found another good first baseman."

"Man, would we have murdered them—with Greenberg at first and Lou in the outfield!"

The U. S. Post Office department handles approximately 50,000,000 pounds of newspapers and magazines annually.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Nearly a month ago the ODT got together with the NCAA and other college athletic groups and announced a 15-point "voluntary" program for reducing travel.

The first point was to localize and simplify schedules and an ODT spokesman pointed out: "The spirit of the program calls for immediate cancellation of many events already scheduled."

So far as football is concerned, there have been few, if any, signs of cancellation or simplification. The few schedules that have been announced seem to call for the usual number of long trips. Asa Bushnell, who hurriedly explains (1) that wartime schedules are slow coming in, (2) that there's not much room left for reduction except in the size of squads and (3) distances traveled by eastern teams aren't great anyway, adds the hope that the result of this program won't be "just a few nods of approval by athletic directors—in the direction of the other fellow." . . . Well, is it?

MICH. HAS ITS WISH

The Jackson, Mich., kids' baseball school is being held this week with Ray Fisher, John Kobs and Bud Hyames from college coaching ranks and Ray Schalk, Bill Rogell and Wish Egan from the big leagues as instructors.

Egan, the Tiger scout, seems to be the guiding spirit in such activities in Michigan and Sport Scribe Jay Fleming of Jackson lists the following in addition to his local program: Kalamazoo—held school with Lou Fessenden as instructor; Muskegon—lining up program for more than 500 boys; Detroit—a 16-team league being formed; Flint—plans development of teams, aided by $1,500 check from Mott Foundation; Battle Creek—business men contributed $2,000 to set up six baseball centers with paid leadership; Bay City—plans six-club American Legion league; Dearborn—hopes to organize 12-team boys' league.

WILL REMAIN

The United States still recognizes the London-Polish government.

He expressed some concern when reporters sought to pin him down on detail as to the position of the London government.

The President reminded his questioners that Russia had done some very pleasant yielding on this and some other questions and that all should keep their heads.

The Russians, he said, are just as anxious to get along with us as we are with them.

He would not give reporters any hint whatsoever on the locale or time of the Big Three meeting other than to say that it will be within the 40-day limit he announced at a news conference last Thursday.

Praises Hopkins, Davies
Asked what would happen to the Polish exiled government if a unified Polish government is set up as a result of the Moscow conference, he said it would go out of existence since the meeting is to set up a new government in which all could participate.

The President was hearty in his praise of the work of Davies and Hopkins crediting the latter particularly with persuading the Russians to yield from their stand on the Big Five power veto at San Francisco. Asked if Hopkins' decision had anything to do with that, he replied: Categorically it did.

He said Hopkins also discussed the recent arrests of 16 Poles in Russia which brought about a halt to Polish issue negotiations at San Francisco.

Mr. Truman said he had no announcement about the arrested Poles at this time. He cautioned reporters repeatedly not to muddy the waters, asserting every effort is being made to work the problem out. There will be further discussion of the Polish situation at the Big Three meeting, he added.

He said he hadn't heard a report mentioned by one questioner that the London Polish government had declared it would have nothing to do with the meeting that starts Friday in Moscow.

The chief executive said Press Secretary Charles G. Ross also would accompany him to the Big Three meeting and that he would do everything possible to see that American newspapers get equality of treatment as to the conference developments, which in itself, he added, will necessarily be secret.

In addition to his civilian staff, the President said he would be accompanied by the Big Three meeting by his personal chief of staff, Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, and representatives of the joint chiefs of staff.

Crops Near Ruin, People Pray For Rain: It Comes

MEATER, Ga., June 13.—There was rejoicing here today.

The devout said: "The Lord saw fit to answer our prayers. We are humble."

The devout, incidentally, includes all the 2,500 people in this town.

Not since May 13 had this community, this rich agricultural county, had a rain. The crops were ruined, or near ruin.

Yesterday was set aside as a day of community-wide prayer services. Stores and shows were closed so people could go to the service.

Then, before the end of the day, the rains came—drenching rains which refreshed the hungry red Georgia earth, gave life to the wilted and burnt tobacco and corn stalks.

Swimmer Drowned

CANTON, June 13.—Siles Hirties, 16, drowned last night in a water-filled pit about a mile south of the city, the Stark county sheriff's office reported. The youth had gone swimming with several companions.

Man Leaps To Death

Virulent Spirit of Nazism Still Lives In Occupied Berlin

BY EDDY GILMORE
BERLIN, June 10 (Delayed).—The spirit of Nazism still lives in Berlin, virulent and brazen and temerity enough to come out the street and spread propaganda aimed at playing one of the Allies off against another.

Houses have been and are being set afire by Hitler youth and at least two Russian officers have been shot and killed by enemies.

Some followers of Hitler are performing just as the Russians predicted they would—carrying on operations behind the backs of the Allies and seeking to spread a seed of distrust and commit sabotage wherever they can.

I was walking alone near the town hall when a German youth aged 17 or 18 rode up on a bicycle.

"Pardon me," he said in English. "Are you British or American?" "American," I told him.

"We are glad to see you," he replied. "Do you know much about the Russians?"

I had just arrived here from Moscow, but I did not enlighten him.

He looked around in a glib way and said: "We have just finished a war with the Russians and you will have a war with them." He talked on and on. It was the Nazi line the same as was used during the war.

A Red army officer came down the street. "So long," said the young German hopping on his bicycle. "See you next war."
